

CBT Skills for Palliative Care

6 day course plus monthly supervision/seminar
learning support

Aims: to teach practical and applicable CBT skills (level 2-3) to staff caring for patients with advanced disease and their families.

North of England:

Marie Curie Hospice,
Newcastle upon Tyne

Dates:

November 19 & 20
January 14 & 15
March 4 & 5

South of England:

St Christopher's Hospice,
Sydenham, London

Dates:

November 5 & 6
January 11 & 12
March 11 & 12

Suitable for: palliative care specialist nurses, doctors, AHPs, social workers; specialist nurses and other clinicians working with advanced heart, lung, neurological or other conditions; community, hospice or hospital based; hospice day-care teams.

Tutors include: Kathryn Mannix, Stirling Moorey, Nigel Sage and Christine Baker

Cost: the course is free to successful applicants *

Some prior basic understanding of CBT is required:
further details on request.

Further information and application forms contact:

Renuka Cader, Marie Curie Cancer Care, London

renuka.cader@mariecurie.org.uk Tel: 0207 599 7273

The closing date for applications is Wednesday 7th October

*A generous Department of Health grant to Marie Curie Cancer Care will cover the cost of training 120 staff throughout England over the next 3 years

Marie Curie gratefully acknowledge the support of St Christopher's Hospice for this course.