

PG courses in Lymphoedema Practice

The University of Bradford offers the following PG courses:

- Master's – MSc in Lymphoedema Practice (180 credits)
- Postgraduate Diploma – PGDip in Lymphoedema Practice (120 credits)
- Postgraduate Certificate – PGCert in Lymphoedema Practice (60 credits)

These postgraduate awards provide a comprehensive modularised programme in Lymphoedema management. The courses address the complex needs of people with chronic oedema.

You can access individual modules as an associate student or study up to a Master's degree, with stepping-off points at Postgraduate Certificate and Postgraduate Diploma levels.

Modules on offer:

The Management of Lymphoedema	Level 3
Treatment of Midline Oedema*	Level M
Advanced Practice in Lymphoedema Management*	Level M
Diagnostics and Lymphology	Level M
Innovative treatment approaches in Lymphoedema	Level M
Research in health and social care	Level M
Quantitative research in health care	Level M
Qualitative research in health care	Level M

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Each of the modules is worth 20 credits

*These modules include the Casley Smith method of Manual Lymphatic Drainage.
Annual updates for Casley Smith DLT available.

For further details and application forms please contact:

Recruitment and Student Support Office, School of Health Studies, 25 Trinity Road, Bradford, West Yorkshire BD5 0BB.

Tel: 01274 236367 or 236310 (24-hour answerphone).

Email: soh-recruitment@bradford.ac.uk

www.bradford.ac.uk/acad/health/nursing/courses/postgraduate